

Position Description

Head of Engagement

Together with your function you are the backbone of the organisation. The objective is to ensure that everyone within the chapter is well connected and motivated throughout the year. The engagement function is crucial for facilitating and mediating within project teams, the board and the overall organization. Engagement is a balance acting of ensuring that members are having fun together and achieving the pre-set goals of the respective teams. The members of the engagement team are the heart beat sensors of the organization and as a collective are asked to monitor and improve the overall wellbeing of oikos. Together with the other board members you are shaping and developing the organization and its set-up in order to create the best oikos chapter there is :-)

Responsibilities

- Creating a great atmosphere within the oikos chapter and across teams
- Organizing informal and formal fun events for the members
- Shaping the organizational set-up
- Enable knowledge-sharing across teams and oikos chapters
- Monitoring the pulse of the organisation

Activities

- Plan social events, such as running dinners/cocktails, parties, outdoor activities etc.
- Establishment partnerships for fun activities in the city
- Conduct internal surveys
- Mediate, solve internal conflicts

Qualifications

- Friends, family, and coworkers attest you a great level of empathy and interpersonal communication skills
- A positive and optimistic hands-on mentality
- Team-player > Solo-dribbler
- Natural Openness towards new ideas, people and activities
- Motivating and infecting other with your enthusiasm is your jam